The KAVANAGH Floor amendment:

- Mandates that arguments submitted for a school district override election be provided with a signed, sworn statement.
- Specifies that arguments submitted by an organization for a school district override election or a bond election must contain a sworn statement by two executive officers of the organization.
- Stipulates that an argument submitted by an individual, not on behalf of an organization, political committee or any other group, must contain a sworn, notarized statement.
- Removes the ability for an individual to appear in the informational pamphlet as anonymous.
- Prescribes that only the person’s city or town and state of residence will appear in the informational pamphlet.
